AN ALL DOG CENTURY COMEDY
No human being takes part in this unique comedy.

Brownie is the owner of a cafe in Dog Town. Here the follies girl and her millionaire sweetheart, the mayor and his friends, the town bully, and the rest of the town meet in the evening to while away the time.

An all dog jazz band lends music to the atmosphere, and Brownie - the wily owner - even economizes by playing four instruments simultaneously. Suddenly the town pest becomes annoying and Brownie puts him out of his cafe.

That night, to revenge himself, the town pest sets the entire town on fire. The fire brigade rushes to the rescue, and Brownie rushes right and left giving orders. Later when the fire becomes too large the brigade gives up and Brownie is forced to sit back and watch his town burn.

Suddenly we find it is a nightmare Brownie has had - and he learns it is wrong to eat a heavy meal before going to bed.

"IT'S A CENTURY".
